Course description:

Each week the focus will be on a different topic concerning some aspect of life in the U.S. The topics will be accompanied by oral reports, printed handouts, quizzes and, in some cases, recordings and/or videos. After a topic has been covered in class, a German-English translation will be assigned, which after completion will be corrected and graded. Then a detailed discussion in a Translation II-course manner will follow. At least four hours of homework will be required each week.

Written and Oral Work:

A minimum of five German-English translations (ca. 28 lines/300 words), ten oral quizzes and one oral presentation.
