Course description:

Advanced level writing will be practised in this course. Emphasis will be placed on vocabulary and expression, as well as effective structuring at sentence, paragraph and full text level. In addition, analysis and interpretation skills will be practised; students will produce both academic and creative writing. The topic, THE SEA, will be considered from various perspectives, and text materials will be taken from different genres of writing, including poetry and prose.

Schein requirements: completion of all set classroom tasks and homework. Various writing tasks will be done in class, including at least one academic essay.

There will be an on-going group writing project (to be discussed in class).
