Description:

This course aims to introduce and implement study skills for improving students' English language abilities, in particular those needed for listening, speaking, reading and writing English in an academic environment. In practicing the above skills students will be required to prepare and present an individual presentation, actively participate in class discussions and/or role-plays, which may require individual reading/research, as well as hand in academic writing assignments.

Please note: This course begins the second week of semester but will finish punctually on July 10th.
