Course description:

The course centers around the pronouns of English, with special focus on personal (and impersonal) pronouns. During the lectures we will learn, among other things, about different types of pronouns, the historic changes of personal pronouns in English, we will discuss impersonal pronouns in much detail and we will also have a look at different varieties of English and particularities in the pronoun system around the world Englishes. Students will be asked to give short presentations, to carry out small (corpus) studies or elaborate on a theoretical topic (term paper). We will be using various text corpora to compare the theory with actual language use. There will be obligatory readings for every week – this is necessary to follow the presentations and to have a vivid discussion during the seminar.
