

Introduction to English Language Studies

The thematic focus of this course is British and American politics, institutions, media and contemporary society. The language aims of the course are to develop the formal register in English and particularly the academic English register, in both writing and speaking.

Oral Performance and Study Skills

The thematic focus of this course is British and American politics, institutions, media and contemporary society. In this course the emphasis is on English phonetics and pronunciation as well as general study skills.

Text and Response

The thematic focus of this course is the legacy of the British Empire and contemporary culture. The language aims of the course are to improve students' ability to carefully read and respond to academic texts in English.

Text Production

The thematic focus of this course is the legacy of the British Empire and contemporary culture. The aim of this course is to improve academic writing in English.

Advanced Integrated Skills

The thematic focus of this course is history and ethics. The emphasis in this course is on academic presentations in English.

Advanced Style

The thematic focus of this course is history and ethics. The aim of this course is to improve and consolidate academic writing skills in English.