Prof. Dr. Eva Berlage

This research colloquium is designed for students enrolled in the Master Engage programme and for advanced students enrolled in other BA or MA programmes. It provides students with an opportunity to discuss their current research projects. Possible aspects to focus on are: the research question(s), the hypotheses, the methodology, some first results or the structure of each of the projects. Even if students are still at a very early stage of their project, they are warmly encouraged to give a presentation in class.
