Description:

This course will focus on advanced writing skills, specifically those needed for academic writing. We will be looking in depth at essay writing and also briefly at critiques and reviews. In addition to analyzing these types of texts we will be addressing the stages of writing (planning, research, brainstorming, writing, reviewing, etc.) as well as choices in style (clarity, voice, tone) in students' own writing. Grades are based on both in-class and out-of-class writing assignments as well as class participation.
