Course description:

Texts about selected aspects of Australian life and culture will form the basis of this course. Reading skills will include close reading and comprehension, structure and style, as well as focussing on vocabulary development. Students will be expected to do some preparation as homework, including reading or research. A number of oral tasks and short written assignments will be set as requirement for the Schein.

As with all IAA Sprachpraxis courses, regular attendance and active participation, and the successful completion of all work set, are required.
