

Examenskolloquium

This supervised seminar addresses students in the final phase of their BA or MA degree course. Here you will be able to share ideas regarding your project and present the outline of your thesis. You will receive advice on possible topics for oral exams and on how to prepare for them. Whatever questions you may have relating to the writing of a thesis or the preparing for oral examinations can be raised and discussed here.

Course requirements: regular attendance and active participation.