

Universität Hamburg
DER FORSCHUNG | DER LEHRE | DER BILDUNG

Institute of English and American Studies (IAA)

Guest Lecture in Key Concepts:
British Literature and Culture in the 20th/21st Century (Prof Ute Berns)

Prof Stephan KARSCHAY
Universität Hamburg

“The London Olympics and the Brexit Referendum – A Critical Perspective”

Mon., 12 November 2018
2 pm, c.t.
Ü 35, Room 0129-02

Stephan Karschay is Junior Professor for English Literature and Culture at Universität Hamburg. He has published widely on Victorian representations of science and crime as well as on contemporary British culture. His most recent publications include the monograph Degeneration, Normativity and the Gothic at the Fin de Siècle (2015) and the chapter on “Constructions of Crime and Criminality” in The Cambridge Companion to Sherlock Holmes (forthcoming).