

Summer School of Siberian Culture Studies (1-16 August, 2019)

DOSTOEVSKY OMSK STATE UNIVERSITY INVITES GERMAN STUDENTS TO TAKE PART IN SUMMER SCHOOL OF SIBERIAN CULTURE STUDIES!

The Summer School of Siberian Culture Studies is a 2-week unique culture and language program featuring education, sports, fun activities and excursions, specially tailored for students whose native language is not Russian.

The program is worth 4 ECTS. Course Fees: 30 000 RUB (approx. 385 €).

Omsk is located in the heart of Siberia with the beautiful countryside nearby, and the program offers not only an opportunity to master the Russian language but also to learn a great deal about Russian history and unique culture of southwestern Siberia with the focus on the Omsk Region, explore the wonders of beautiful Siberian nature.

Classes are held in international small groups based on the Russian language competences.

Course dates:

| | |
|--|--------------------------|
| Arrival | 30 July - 31 July |
| Placement test and Opening Ceremony | 1 August |
| Course Start | 2 August |
| Course End | 16 August |
| Departure | 17-18 August |

Deadline for applications: July 10, 2019

! Our Summer school has been included into the list of Summer schools supported by DAAD, students from Germany can apply for the DAAD scholarship.

If you are interested in participation at our summer program and applying for financial support from DAAD, please send the following documents at omp.omsu@mail.ru or interofficeomsu@gmail.com

- Application form
- Copy of the information page in passport
- CV
- Motivation letter
- Copy of the education document

For more information regarding the summer program, please visit our website <http://omsu.ru/> → International version → Summer and Winter Schools

